1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. On 9 March 2001, the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (“PAIA”) came into force. Cell C Limited (“Cell C”) has compiled this PAIA manual in compliance with the provisions of section 51 of PAIA and the amendments effected by the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (“POPIA”), in accordance with the spirit of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, in order to enable its subscribers and the public in general to have access to information held by Cell C, which is required for the exercise or protection of their rights. Where a request is made in terms of PAIA to a private body, that private body must disclose the information if the requester is able to show that the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights, and provided that no grounds of refusal contained in PAIA and/or POPIA are applicable. PAIA sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to information requests.
- 1.2. POPIA amends certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information by providing for the establishment of an Information Regulator to exercise certain powers and perform certain duties and functions in terms of POPIA and PAIA, providing for the issuing of codes of conduct and providing for the rights of persons regarding unsolicited electronic communications and automated decision making in order to regulate the flow of personal information and to provide for matters concerned therewith.
- 1.3. This PAIA manual will be updated on a regular basis as required by the provisions of section 51(2).

The exercise of an individual's rights is subject to justifiable limitations, including the reasonable protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality and effective, efficient and good governance. PAIA and the request procedure contained in this PAIA manual may not be used for access to a record for criminal or civil proceedings, nor should information be requested after the commencement of such proceedings.

- 11.1.2. A request for access to information which does not comply with the formalities as prescribed by PAIA will be returned to you.
- 11.1.3. POPIA provides that a data subject may, upon proof of identity, request Cell C to confirm, free of charge, all the information it holds about the data subject and may request access to such information, including information about the identity of third parties who have or have had access to such information.
- 11.1.4. POPIA also provides that where the data subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to him/her, Cell C must provide the data subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service and may require that the data subject pays a deposit for all or part of the fee.

- 11.1.5. Grounds for refusal of the data subject's request are set out in PAIA and are discussed below.
- 11.1.6. POPIA provides that a data subject may object, at any time, to the processing of personal information by Cell C, on reasonable grounds relating to his/her particular situation, unless legislation provides for such processing. The data subject must complete the prescribed form attached hereto as Annexure E and submit it to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, facsimile number or electronic mail address set out above.
- 11.1.7. A data subject may also request Cell C to correct or delete personal information about the data subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully; or destroy or delete a record of personal information about the data subject that Cell C is no longer authorised to retain records in terms of POPIA's retention and restriction of records provisions.
- 11.1.8. A data subject that wishes to request a correction or deletion of personal information or the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information must submit a request to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, facsimile number or electronic mail address set out above on the form attached hereto as Annexure F.

11.2. Proof of identity

Proof of identity is required to authenticate your identity and the request. You will, in addition to this prescribed form, be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of your identity document or other legal forms of identity.

11.3. Payment of the prescribed fees

- 11.3.1. There are two categories of fees which are payable:
- 11.3.1.1. The request fee: R140.00.
 - 11.3.1.2. The access fee: This is calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation costs, as well as postal costs. These fees are set out in Annexure B.
- 11.3.2. Section 54 of PAIA entitles Cell C to levy a charge or to request a fee to enable it to recover the cost of processing a request and providing access to records. The fees that may be charged are set out in Annexure B of Government Notice No. R.757 dated 27 August 2021 promulgated under the PAIA Regulations. Please refer to Annexure D.

- 11.3.3. Where a decision to grant a request has been taken, the record will not be disclosed until the necessary fees have been paid in full.

11.4. Timelines for consideration of a request for access

- 11.4.1. Requests will be processed within 30 (thirty) days, unless the request contains considerations that are of such a nature that an extension of the time limit is needed.
- 11.4.2. The Information Officer will inform the requester of the decision, and the fees payable (if applicable) on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 3 of Annexure A to Government Notice No. R.757 dated 27 August 2021 promulgated under the PAIA Regulations.
- 11.4.3. Should an extension be required, you will be notified, together with reasons explaining why the extension is necessary.

11.5. Grounds for refusal of access and protection of information

- 11.5.1. There are various grounds upon which a request for access to a record may be refused. These grounds include:
- 11.5.1.1. the protection of personal information of a third person (who is a natural person) from unreasonable disclosure;
 - 11.5.1.2. the protection of commercial information of a third party (for example: trade secrets; financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party);
 - 11.5.1.3. if disclosure would result in the breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party;
 - 11.5.1.4. if disclosure would jeopardise the safety of an individual or prejudice or impair certain property rights of a third person;
 - 11.5.1.5. if the record was produced during legal proceedings, unless that legal privilege has been waived;
 - 11.5.1.6. if the record contains trade secrets, financial or sensitive information or any information that would put Cell C (at a disadvantage in negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition); and/or 11.5.1.7. if the record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or by Cell C.

11.5.2. Section 70 of PAIA contains an overriding provision. Disclosure of a record is compulsory if it would reveal (i) a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law; or (ii) there is an imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and (iii) the public interest in the disclosure of the record in question clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure.

11.5.3. If the request for access to information affects a third party, then such third party must first be informed within 21 (twenty one) days of receipt of the request. The third party would then have a further 21 (twenty one) days to make representations and/or submissions regarding the granting of access to the record.

12. REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO A REQUESTER ON REFUSAL OF ACCESS

12.1. If the Information Officer decides to grant you access to the particular record, such access must be granted within 30 (thirty) days of being informed of the decision.

12.2. There is no internal appeal procedure that may be followed after a request to access information has been refused. The decision made by the Information Officer is final. In the event that you are not satisfied with the outcome of the request, you are entitled to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to take the matter further.

12.3. Where a third party is affected by the request for access and the Information Officer has decided to grant you access to the record, the third party has 30 (thirty) days in which to appeal the decision in a court of competent jurisdiction. If no appeal has been lodged by the third party within 30 (thirty) days, you must be granted access to the record.

12.4. If you are not satisfied with such process, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator, using the contact details listed in paragraph 4.
